

Building Pathways to Success

A Career Mentoring Program for Bosnian Americans

Saturday, April 10, 2010

12 noon – 6 pm

Fontbonne University Library

6800 Wydown Blvd. Clayton, MO 63105

The Bosnian Herzegovinian American Academy of Arts and Sciences (BHAAAS), in partnership with the St. Louis Bosnian community, has initiated an outreach program to provide mentoring and guidance to younger Bosnian Americans who seek support for career development and advancement in professional, educational, and cultural fields.

On Saturday, April 10, 2010, the BHAAAS is sponsoring a free, day-long program on the campus of Fontbonne University with workshops for Bosnian Americans interested in:

- Medicine / Health Care
- Law / Public Policy
- Engineering / Computer Science
- Literature / Journalism
- Research Science / Higher Education
- Graphic Arts / Architecture
- Business / Finance

The free interactive workshops will provide practical advice from Bosnian panelists who are established practitioners in their fields. Topics will include guidance on pathways to success for high school and college-age Bosnian Americans. All ages are invited to participate.

The program will offer information on financial aid and scholarships for college and graduate school, opportunities for study in Bosnia-Herzegovina, and a public reading by acclaimed Bosnian author Aleksandar Hemon, BHAAAS President.

The program is sponsored by the Bosnian Herzegovinian American Academy of Arts and Sciences – <http://bhaaas.org/>

For more information or to register for the free workshops, please visit:

<https://sites.google.com/site/bhaaasproject/>